

Each spring, the Congressional Institute sponsors a nationwide high school art competition for each district in the country.

The Congressional Art Competition is an opportunity to recognize and encourage artistic talent in our youth, reaching every corner of the United States.

This annual competition is open to all high school students, and the overall winner for each district will have their artwork displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one full year. The winner also receives complimentary airfare for the student and one adult/guardian to Washington, D.C.

Congressman Kinzinger looks forward to seeing the works of art that students of IL-16 submit for this year's competition!
